

Best poem ever

The best poem ever is in invisible ink below,

It's really, really clever, but don't ask me how I know!

Carpet.

Don' t spill your drink unless your sure It' s a normal carpet on you floor,
I brought a carpet from Kilamangoo, And when I spilt my drink it grew and grew.....

Shep .

Shep the sheep was ever so sweet

And loved to fly his kite, Until one fateful summers day when Shep had quite a fright.

His kite kite got tangled high above, caught up in a pylon, Poor Shep' s most exquisite fleece Turned from wool to nylon!

Stilts

If your going to make a pair of stilts
Be sure not to build too tall,
It' s so hard getting up them,
But even harder if you fall!

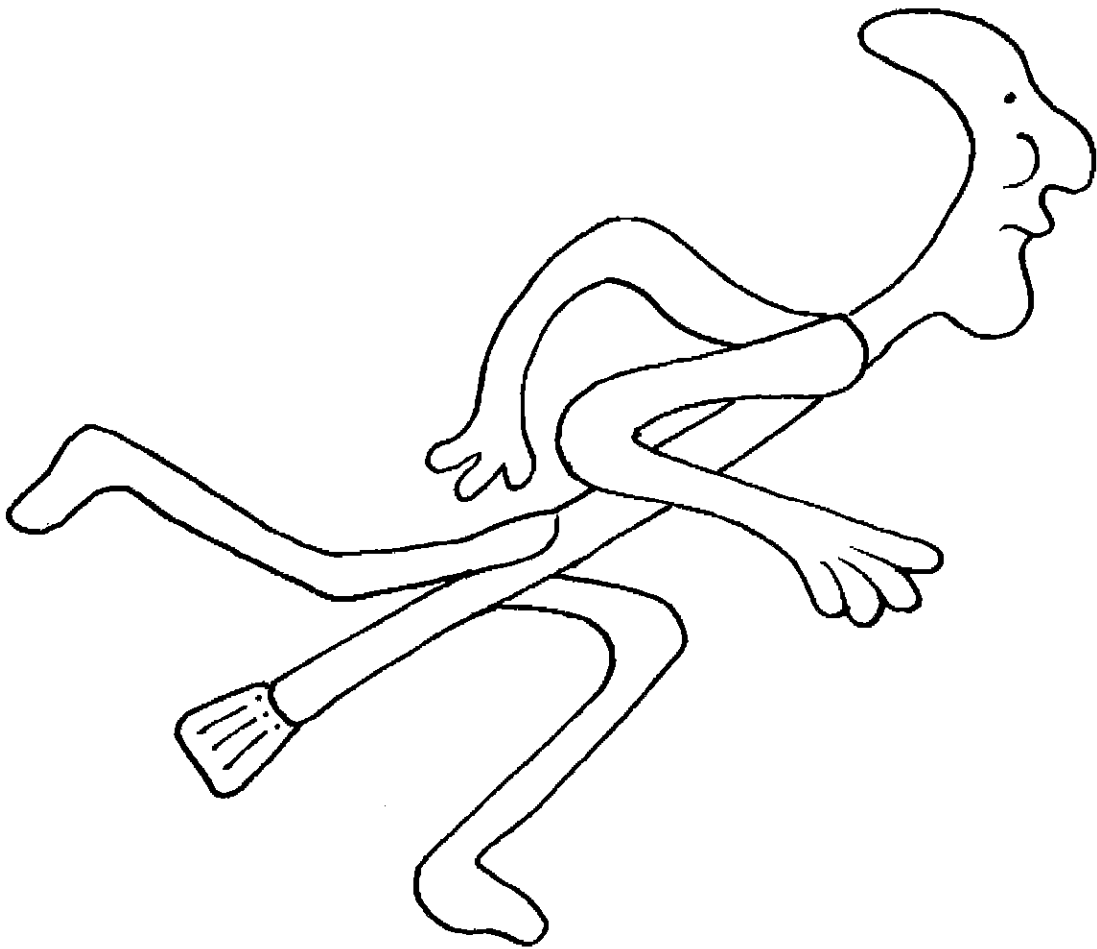

Mr. Chin-Wag

When Mr. Chin Wag wags his chin, His thirteen chins start wobbling,
Up and down they wobble round,
His many chins that reach the ground,
He admits it isn't all that fun,
But says: "I'd rather lots than none".

Walking Stick

What use is this walking stick, when it's never at my side?

I say I'm going out for a walk and it runs away to hide.

My walking stick keeps running and keeping ups a pain,

They sold me the 'Super sprint 2002', I'll not go there again.

I should have bought the 'Shuffle' model, or the 'Get there in the end',

My stick is on the home straight, and I'm going round the bend!

Auntie Sprout

When my Auntie cooks for me
The pots are never clean,
She even cooks the salad
And so the goodness escapes as steam, Clouds of smoke from vegetables,
Half of which need peeling, When my Auntie cooks for me there's more goodness in the ceiling.

What makes?)

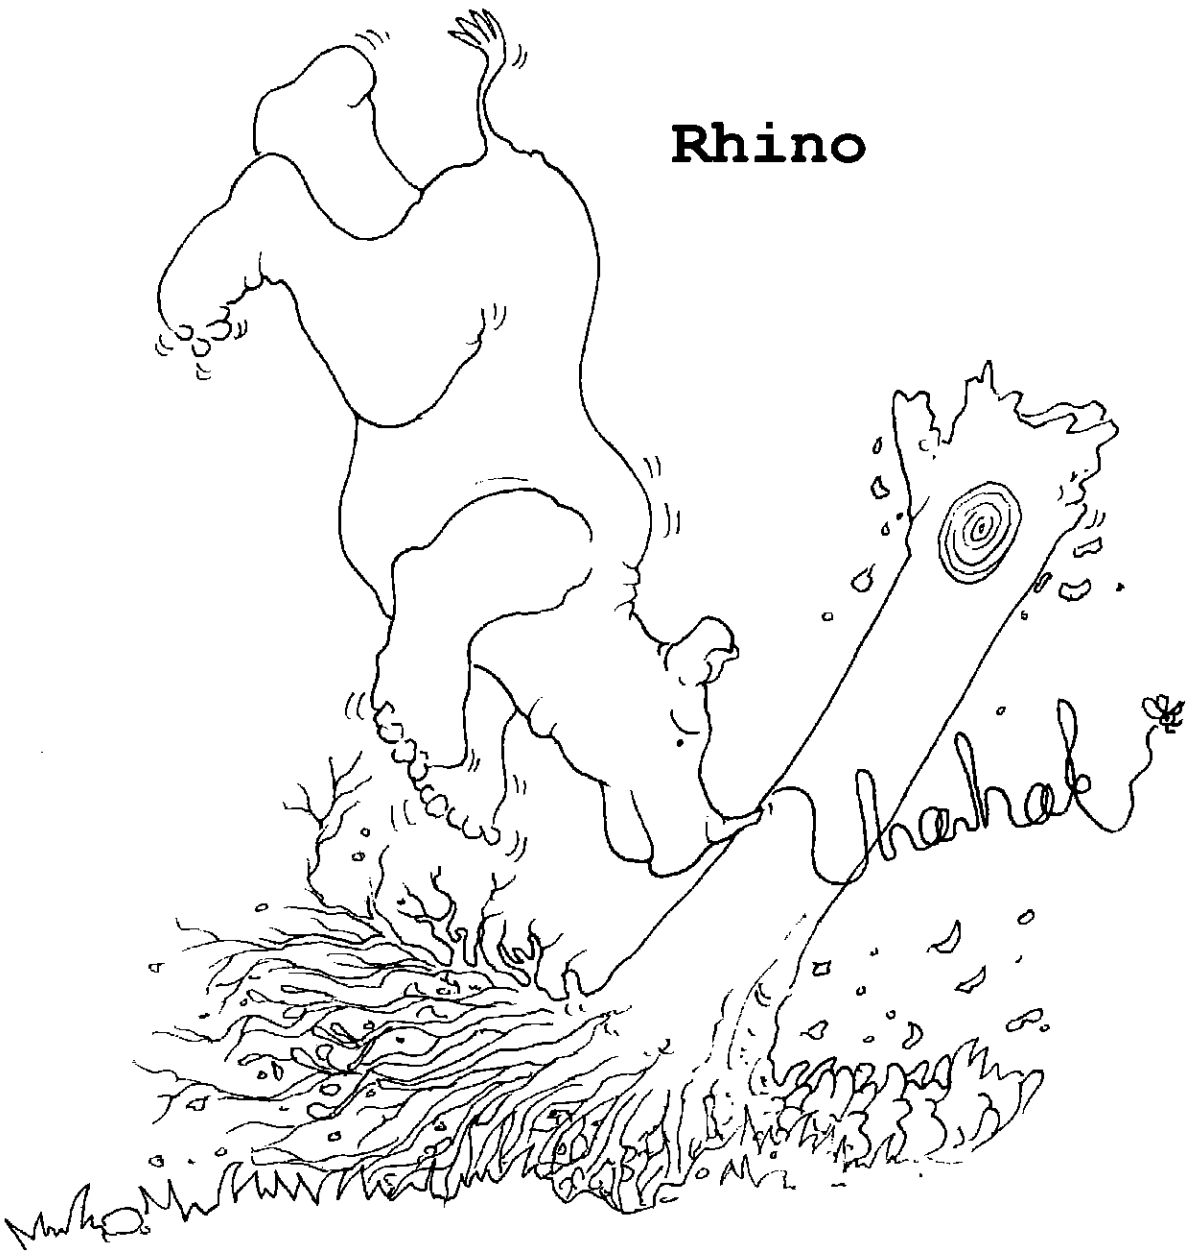

What makes the wind blow?
Is it the same thing that makes the flowers grow?
The cloud snow?
The river flow?
The sun glow?
The stars show?
The birds crow?
I'm sure it's not just science at work,
But that is all I know.

Water Slide

The water slide's a brilliant ride,
You explode like a volcano eruption, Faster and faster,
just like the lava, (But beware it's not under construction).

Rhino

I know why the Rhino cries, the Rhino cries because all the flies are buzzing around the Rhino's eyes,

The fearsome Rhino's pestered by a teeny tiny little fly,

I asked the mighty Rhino "Why?

Why don't you squash the tiny fly"?

But he being clever and rather more wise, knows it's worse when he tries,

To shoo the flies from his eyes.

A fly is a target far too small, for a Rhino charging like a Bull.

Quite

The land of Quite Impossible is possibly the only place where.....

You can look inside the eye of a needle to find a camel sitting there.

Where pigs might fly and all the cows do
And the Gingerbread man may just eat you,
With great big hills of needles, where you search for the piece of straw,
The sky is a deep blue ocean and the wall is an open door.

The land of Quite Impossible is possibly the only place where

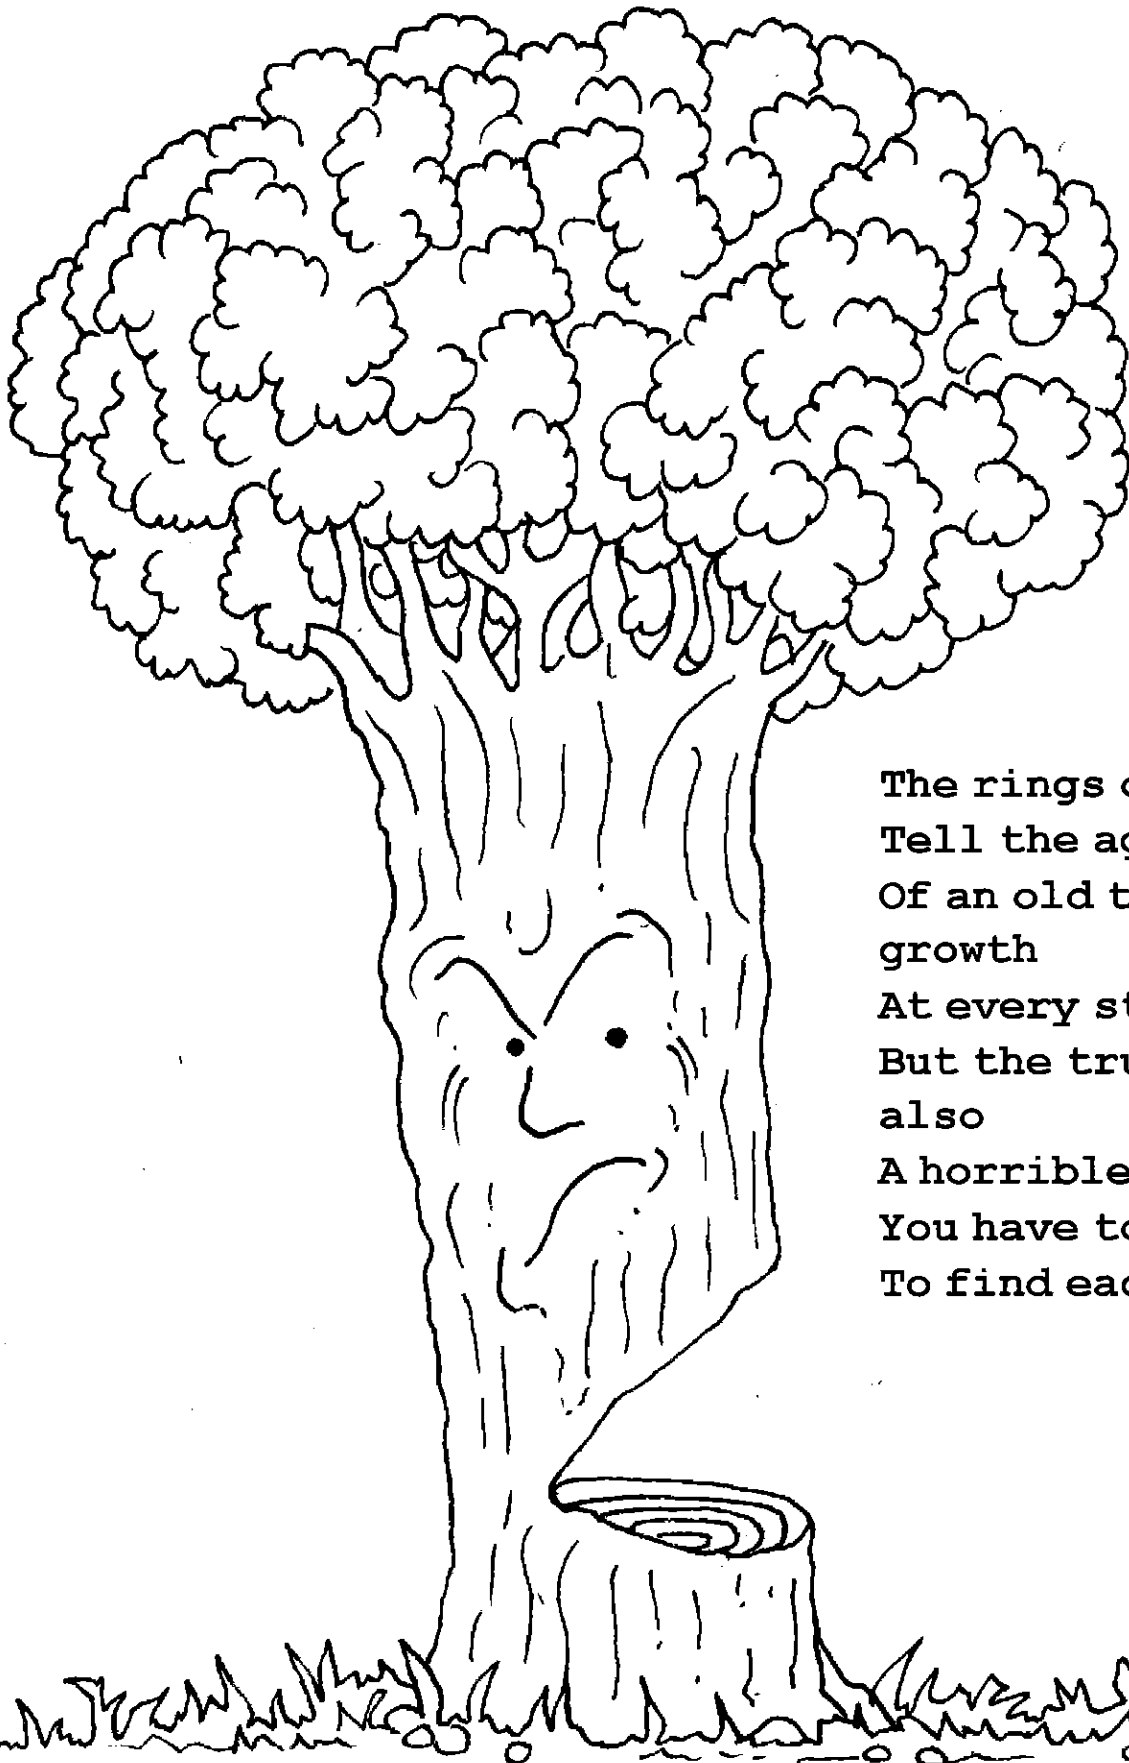

You can search for your entire life, just find your already there.

Q WHY IS DOT TO DOT
SO FUN?

PICTURE FORMS
AS YOU JOIN EACH ONE!

A tree's age.

The rings of truth Tell the age
Of an old tree's growth
At every stage, But the truth is also A horrible thing,
You have to cut
To find each ring.

Rumble

I can hear a mumbling, rumbling, grumbling sound,

And only just a minute ago something shook the ground.

It may just be loud thunder, but still it seems quite funny,

Could it be an earthquake? Or could this be a tummy ?!

Circles.

I thought I was going in circles Until some one pointed out I'm not going round and down I'm on a spiral, up and out.

Weird Beard

Poor Mr. Weird Beard feared the very worst, Convinced that his chin carpet somehow had a curse,
He didn't even want a beard but it had a mind of it's own, Ever since he turned fourteen his beard had constantly grown.

One day when he'd had enough, he sat there fuming in a huff,
He found some scissors and began to cut,
But his nasty old beard held them shut.....
Sensing his beard could soon be the winner
He sneaked to the shed for the garden hedge trimmer,
But the beard had some very different ideas, Turned around and grew right out of his ears, It's frightening how fast a weird beard grows, Especially when it's climbing out of your nose.

Poor Mr weird beard must now wish he had Never complained that his beard was bad, Compared to a forest in your nose and ears
A weird beards the very least of your fears.

The naughtiest boy in the world

The naughtiest boy in the world,
behaved as good as gold, He minded all his P's and Q's, and remembered all his thankyou's.

He opened the door and let you go first,

Would give you his drink while dying of thirst,

Would let you play with his brand new toy,

He really was the naughtiest boy,

He tidied his room every night, when his brother upset him he refused to fight.

So why was he so good at the age of eleven?

"Because..." he said, "One day I'll die,
And I want to cause havoc in heaven"!

No 32 Bus

Were all waiting for the 32 Bus, Trouble is, when it arrives,
We don't all squeeze inside,
We need someone to save the fuss,
And invent a Quadruple decker bus,
To give us all a ride.

Picture hanging.

I was trying to hang a picture,

But the ladder wobbled

SO

It made wobble left and right,

Wiggling too and fro,

I slipped up on the thirteenth rung,

And watched the ladder fall,

And now you see, it's only me,

Hung like a picture on the wall.
